DRILLING FOR OIL TO START NEXT WEEK

Expert Oil Men Say Prospects Are Very Bright to Find a Big Pool
In Lincoln County

Drilling for oil on an extensive and systematic scale will start in Lincoln county early next week. M. W. Barnard, of Hartford, Ohio county, a successful oil operator of western Kentucky, has been in this section, since early in January, working out the structural work and geology of an anticline in the western part of this country, on the farm of Adam W. Carpenter. This week he brought in a standard rig and string of tools and drilling will start within the next few days. Harry A. Molney, recently of Wayne county oil fields, is doing the contract work.

Mr. Barnard, who is thoroughly experienced and successful oil man, thinks highly of the prospects of locating a large pool underlying Lincoln county. He says that the preliminary structure work shows a very pronounced arch or fold similar to the famous Glenpool in Oklahoma and other pools of that state, Illinois, Ohio, Pennsylvania and other oil fields, which have proven very large producers. He has figured the anticline here to be about one and a half to two miles in width and nine to ten miles long, which will cover a considerable territory in the western part of Lincoln county. The general trend of the axis of this anticline is said to be about 45 degrees northwest or southwest.

Mr. E. Florence, of Stanford, who has had much experience in this work in the Wayne county fields, is assisting Mr. Barnard. Great interest is being manifested here over the prospects of getting a gusher and opening up a big field in this county. Citizens are giving Mr. Barnard and his men every encouragement and every facility at their command for all real estate what it will mean to this county to have a rich oil field in its midst. With the L. & N. and Cincinnati Southern railroads both running through the indicated field, and with the pipe line from Wayne county, only about 25 miles away a pool located here would be in a most advantageous position and prove the means of bringing a large amount of business to this community.

TRYING TO WIN BULL MOOSE

Republican Leaders Hold Pow Wow In Louisville.—Dr. Davison on Hand

Judge R. L. Davison, one of the wheelhorses of the "old-line" republicans of Kentucky, went to Louisville, Wednesday night, to attend a conference of republican leaders, the object of which was to prepare a program regarding the senatorial and congressional races, to which the Progressives of the State could be induced to agree. The Louisville Herald, the Bull Moose organ in Kentucky had these references to the meeting:

The proposition to divide honors in the state will come up for final and definite action Tuesday afternoon. Leaders said, when emissaries may be chosen to approach the Progressive camp.

Outside of eight or nine members of the State Central Committee and a number who were recently retired from federal jobs, the attendance was small.

The meeting was called to order by John W. McCulloch, (the big distributor of Owensboro). Among others present were J. E. Bowser of Middleboro, and Charles L. Scholl of Louisville. Ed R. Miller, of Paducah, John W. McCulloch, of Owensboro, John P. Haswell, of Hardinsburg, J. M. Clinton, Richard P. Ernest, former Gov. A. C. Wilson, W. Marshall Ballifit, William Heyburn, Charles Ballard, Joseph Conding, Judge Nick Vaughan, R. L. James, R. Williams, George W. Long, D. H. Ross and Louis Vassman, of Louisville; George Hutchins, former postmaster of Lawrenceburg; Henry Vassan, of Edmonton; William Henry Jones, former postmaster of Glasgow; C. M. Barnett, editor Hartford Republican; D. C. Edwards, former Congressman from the Eleventh District; Morris Galvin, former collector of internal revenue at Covington; Judge William D. Cochran of Mayfield, J. H. Meyer and Judge Ed Boltz, of Campbell county; of Newport, H. B. Bryson, of Carlisle, J. T. McGregor, of Frankfort; Edward Morrow, of Somerset, Dr. R. L. Davies, of Mt. Sterling; Sherman R. H. Webb, of Harrodsburg and Harry Ginn, both of Lexington. Among these conspicuous men the meeting was Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, an announced candidate for United States Senator. Dr. Hunter was showing some of his old-time speed in shaking hands with his Republican friends before the meeting was called to order and sat in the meeting during the proceedings.

D. C. Edwards May Run

Friends of former Congressman Dan C. Edwards, of the Eleventh district, have started a boom for the Laurel county man for the Republican nomination for the short-term senatorship, and he may be induced to stand for the honor. Congressman Edwards is in high favor with the Bull Moose element, although at present he is within the g. o. p. fold, the two factions in Laurel county having last year entered into a working agreement. Should Mr. Edwards conclude to run for Senator he will show up strong where the Republican votes are the thickest—Louisville Times.

BIG DAMAGE IN WEST END Was Done By Wind and Hail Storm Early in The Week

Hustonville, June 6. This section was visited last Monday evening by one of the worst wind storms that was ever witnessed by the oldest citizens of the West End. It came like a cyclone from the north-west with an awful force and laid trees, in its path in great numbers. Lot of damage to fences was done. The hail was something fierce while it lasted, almost stripping the trees of their foliage, in many places doing great damage to the fruit. Grapes were badly damaged. The town was flooded with water and mud and it looked very much like a flood was on us for awhile. The streets were impossible alone in front of W. H. Lair's store and only lacked a very little of getting up in his store. Quite a number of negroes could do with hoes in their hands. For some reason or other, the geese will not touch the cotton plants, but having been purposely kept away from green food and softs, they make short work of anything else in the field. The geese are divided into groups with two or three men as drivers behind them, and they are sent into the cotton fields to eat the cotton crows, right behind the cotton cultivators, and do the work that is required of them thoroughly and systematically.

Mr. Wilcher says that Mr. Lutes has driven a drove of 142 geese which he turns into his cotton fields behind the cultivators and that they do much better work in cleaning out grass and weeds than the same number of negroes could do with hoes in their hands. For some reason or other, the geese will not touch the cotton plants, but having been purposely kept away from green food and softs, they make short work of anything else in the field. The geese are divided into groups with two or three men as drivers behind them, and they are sent into the cotton fields to eat the cotton crows, right behind the cotton cultivators, and do the work that is required of them thoroughly and systematically.

Mr. Lutes was one of the best known cattle and mule dealers in Kentucky before locating in North Carolina a few years ago and he is making the same success there that he did here and on a larger scale. He had recently bought more plantation land and now has holdings amounting to about 1000 acres, all lying close to Goldsboro. He has quite a large acreage in cotton this season and looks for a heavy crop, Mr. Wilcher says.

EXTRACTS FROM ROAD LAW

To Be Sent Out to Road Overseers By Fiscal Court

Road overseers to handle the working of the dirt roads in Lincoln county will be appointed next week. The fiscal court has ordered extracts from the next road law printed and a copy will be sent to each overseer, together with notice of his appointment. The extracts from the road law which will be sent out follows:

Extracts From the New Road Law

The following paragraphs are extracts from the New Road Law. It is believed that the road overseers will be relieved that the road law is very particular and that they will require their hands out on a full day's work, and that they will not be paid on their road who has not put in full time. Any overseer, who returns a hand as having worked full time, when in fact the hand has not put full time is guilty of perjury, and liable to indictment and punishment accordingly.

Sec. 85. The Fiscal Court of any county may require all able bodied male citizens of the county, over 18 and under 80 years of age, except licensed ministers of the gospel, and citizens of incorporated towns and cities, to provide themselves with necessary tools and implements and to work on the roads of the county not exceeding two days a week, and six days a month, and in cases of emergency, the overseers may require the road hands to work to keep the roads in good condition for travel, and in days in any week or year. Any such citizen may furnish an able-bodied substitute to work in his place. A day's work for such hands shall be eight hours. The Fiscal Court, in its discretion, may pay the hands so ordered to work on the roads a reasonable compensation per day for all, or part of their work.

The several candidates named for the directorships are named in a Cleveland newspaper as follows:

Robert M. Dardap, of Pittsburgh; William S. Rowe, Cincinnati, and Thomas H. Wilson and C. A. Paine, of Cleveland, were nominated for Class A of the first group.

For the Class B directors in the larger group, the nominations include Thomas A. Combs, of Lexington, Ky.; Henry M. Garlick, Youngstown, and Harry Conby, Cleveland.

The second group nominated W. A. Graham, O. F., for Class A, and E. L. McClain, Greentield, O., and C. D. Moore, Corry, Pa., for Class B.

For Class C, the nominations include Sam E. Huston, the principal local agent, and the German of Peoria, represented by Brown & Martin. Both will write Saturday.

Any one assigned to work on a public road who shall, without good cause, fail to appear with proper implements, and do good work thereon, after having been notified for two days by the officer having supervision of the road, or by someone authorized in writing by him to give such notice, shall on trial and conviction, before a justice of the peace or county judge, be fined for each day he so fails to work to two dollars and fifty cents.

USES GEES TO HOE COTTON Charley Lutes tries out Novel Plan On His Big Plantation

The proposition of training monkeys to pick cotton has often been discussed by imaginative writers in the southern states, but it remained for a transplanted Kentuckian, who is making a big success of cotton plantations in North Carolina, to put geese to get cotton and profitable work in his fields of cotton. This is what Charles Lutes is doing at his big plantation outside Goldsboro, N. C., according to report brought back here by Wm. Wilcher, his brother-in-law, who is on a visit to his former home in Lincoln county.

Mr. Wilcher says that Mr. Lutes has visited last Monday evening by one of the worst wind storms that was ever witnessed by the oldest citizens of the West End. It came like a cyclone from the north-west with an awful force and laid trees, in its path in great numbers.

Lot of damage to fences was done. The hail was something fierce while it lasted, almost stripping the trees of their foliage, in many places doing great damage to the fruit. RAISED PROPERTY $10,428,815 State Board of Equalization Finishes Assessment of State

The total equalized value of all property in Kentucky subject to assessment by County Assessors is $864,273,888 for 1914, which is $12,026,633 higher than for 1913. This was an increase of $142,821 over the assessed valuation of $845,845,623. The State Board of Equalization, of which Assessor Eb Kennedy, of Lincoln county, is one of the secretaries, completed its work and compiled its report Thursday. Land assessments were increased by the Board from $351,625,429 to $364,51,305; assessment of town lots from $29,970,527 to $29,300,650 and personality from $116,490,578 to $119,071,18. The dog tax amounts to $103,040, and exemptions to $80,758,649. The report of the Board on counties in this section of the state is as follows:

LEXINGTON BUSINESS MAN

Has Fine Chance to Get on Reserve Bank Directory, Says W. M. Bright

Cashier W. M. Bright, of the Lincoln County National Bank, returned Thursday from Cleveland, Ohio, where he attended a meeting of the directors of the reserve banks of this district, the two Standard national banks both having bankers of this district. Mr. Bright was given a most cordial welcome and entertainment. The local banks will very probably support Hon. Thomas A. Combs, of Lexington as candidate for the Class B, directorate of the reserve bank at Cleveland. The Class A directors are made up of bankers and it was recognized as impossible that a Kentucky banker could be elected.

Class B directors are made up of business men, and Class C, directors are named by the Federal Reserve Board. The banks of the district are divided into three groups and each group will be permitted to vote for one director in each of the first two classes.

SHELTON M. BAILEY Proprietor

$1 A YEAR STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

According to a summary in the "Literary Digest," a large majority of the responsible newspapers of the country are strongly supporting the Wilson administration, especially in its policy toward Mexico. The Southern papers are almost a unit in supporting the president, the only exceptions being Hearst's Georgian and a few other scattering irresponsible sheets. The northern press, excepting the Hearst papers and a very few others, are also praising the administration's efforts to avoid a useless war. The Western and Pacific Coast papers are also strongly backing the administration. The final summary shows that fully 80 per cent of the papers are supporting the administration in this fight. Among these papers will be found many strong progressive papers and many rockribbed Republican papers, all extremely partisan, but patriotic enough to uphold the President in his foreign policy. The Independent press is solidly behind the President in his laudable efforts to avoid entangling alliances and prevent a cruel war and the loss of good Americans who are worth more to this country than all the peons in existence. So it will be seen that practically the whole country is backing the President with the exception of Mr. Hearst, who is always opposed to whatever the administration wants. There have been instances in this country where papers have been suppressed for doing less than the Hearst papers, and that is doing. It's too bad that most of Hearst's money can find some honorable and decent way of spending his millions. Nature never did much for Hearst—he exhibits just one sign of human intelligence. He knows enough to hire brains. And the brains that he hires know enough to boost and boom Hearst into the lime light in order to hold their jobs. They print the news, not as it occurs, but as they think Hearst wants it to occur. But the people are gradually getting onto Hearst's curves and are contentedly ignoring him.

Conceded Beckham's Nomination

The Paris Democrat, an anti-Beckham paper, reluctantly concedes his nomination for the Senate and urges all democrats to get together and elect him in November. It said:

A number of the Democratic papers of Kentucky say Beckham will be the Democratic nominee for Senator to a certainty, unless Stanley and McReary combine their strength, and some of the papers, even in that event, think Beckham will win.

The Senatorial race presents a most peculiar situation. At the time the candidates announced, the race promised to be both close and bitter. At present there is no trace, on the surface, of bitterness.

The people who will support Beckham are thoroughly satisfied with the situation and those opposed to him have either lost heart, or they are waiting for something to happen. Unless something unforeseen does happen, Mr. Beckham will be the nominee.

It is reported that the hand-books make Mr. Beckham favorite against the field. That in itself is significant of the widespread belief that Mr. Beckham will be the Democratic nominee.

With the chances of a united Republican party staring the Democratic party in the face, it is up to the different factions in the party to compose their differences quietly, select the strongest and ablest man, and then put him across in November. The report of the odds quoted in the event Beckham gets the nomination do not show that the Democratic nominee will be as strong as he should be, 100 to 75 that Beckham wins if nominated if not near enough odds on a Democratic nominee. The odds should be at least 3 to 1. The point is, that all of the battles of the Democrats should be fought in the par-

NERVOUS HEADACHES

Heavy Feeling, as If My Brain Was Pressing Down

Mrs. Hill says: "I cannot tell you how much I have suffered during the past twelve years." Twelve years is a long time for any one to suffer. A great multitude of women in this country know exactly what Mrs. Hill means when she says, "Heavy feeling, as if my brain was pressing down. So nervous I could not get my rest at night. Would have sinking spells and then so weak that I could not do my work." A great many women in the United States will recognize in this description their own experience.

Mrs. Hill found a remedy. After taking four bottles of Peruna she gained in strength and flesh and wrote us that she was a well woman again. She says, "I cannot thank you enough for my recovery."

This is no ordinary incident. Twelve years suffering. Four bottles of Peruna restored to perfect health. If Peruna can do this for one woman why can it not for another? Is it not worth your attention? Is it not worth trying?

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

ly. There are enough Democrats in Kentucky to elect any nominee the party selects, and after they participate on the primary, why, it is perfectly natural for Democrats to take their coats off for the respective candidates, but after that let all be peace and harmony in the party.

If something does turn up and opposition grows keen before the August primary, why, it is perfectly natural for Democrats to take their coats off for the respective candidates, but after that let all be peace and harmony in the party.

Drastic Cigarette Law

Tobacco dealers will find the act of 1914 prohibiting the use of cigarettes by boys under 18 years of age a dangerous law, it is surmised. Any boy within this prescribed age found smoking tobacco may be arrested and fined, and the fine suspended if he will tell from whom he secured his smoking material. It is the most drastic anti-cigarette law ever enacted in the state.

Get The Habit

Get the habit of knowing when to look, and where to look.

It is a habit that will save you many dollars in the run of a year. As a habit, it is one of the principal aids to success in life.

Study the advertising pages of your local paper each week.

Study them with a two-fold purpose—the determining of what goods to buy and where to find them.

If a local merchant spends money in advertising his wares, it is safe to assume that he is able to make good on every statement that he makes.

It is also safe to assume that the home made will do more for you than a strange will do. It is his way, and it's the way which should appeal to you.

It is a habit of which any person should justly feel proud.

News Notes

Awaiting a definite reply from the Constitutionalists as to their attitude on mediation the envoys and delegates at Niagara transacted no business Wednesday. It is thought that Carranza cannot help but accept the proposition by the mediators, which is being kept secret. The Constitutionalists agents in Washington communicated all afternoon and most of the night with Carranza over a special wire. No statement was made. The Administration officials have refused so far to say what the attitude will be toward the army at Vera Cruz. The situation in the Mexican capital has been much improved by the arrival of ammunition for Huerta, as the people feel he will be able to defend the city in an adequate manner.

New Kentucky Towns Were Named

Louisville was named for Louis XVI, King of France. There are similarly-named towns in Illinois, Kansas and Mississippi, but there were so called in honor of resident families. Covington honors the name of Gen. Leonard Covington, distinguished at Fort Recovery in 1794. Counties in Alabama and Mississippi and towns in Georgia and New York also bear his name.

Lexington is one of twenty-eight places in the United States named in commemoration of the Revolutionary battle.

Padiacah was the name of a celebrated Indian Chief, who formerly lived in the vicinity and who was buried on the banks of the Tennessee river, now within the city limits.

Henderson was named for Col. Richard Henderson, of Kentucky. A country and river in Illinois and a county and town in Tennessee bear the name of this Kentuckian.

Owensboro was so called in honor of Col. Abraham Owen, of Kentucky, who was killed at Tippecanoe. Owen county, Ind., was also named for him.

Ashland, in Boyd county, was so named, according to Henry Clay, whose home bore the same name, from the ash timber which abounded in the vicinity.

Bowling Green is one of seven of the places in the country so called. The word is said to be derived from a term denoting ornamental gardening, or a plate of turf for bowling. The name is found in Yorkshire, England.

Frankfort was named for one of a band of pioneers, who alone succeeded in fording the Kentucky river, and was killed by Indians on reaching the opposite side.

Hopkinsville bears the name of Gen. Samuel Hopkins, a Revolutionary officer.

Maysville owes its name to the original proprietor, John May.

Cynthiana was named for the two daughters of the original proprietors, Cynthia and Anna Harris.

Danville was so called after its founder, Walter Daniel.

Georgetown was named for President George Washington. It is the abundance of cedar trees in the vicinity, was given the name of the mountain in Palestine, where such trees grew. It is a Semitic word, meaning "whitish," and is a common-place name in the United States.

Mr. Sterling took the name of the city in Scotland, with the prefix of "mon" because of the numerous mounds in the vicinity.

Paris is a transference from the city of France. Many other American towns are similarly named.

Richmond was named from the Virginia city, which was so called on account of the resemblance to Richmond, Surrey county, England.

Shelbyville is a namesake of Gen. Isaac Shelby, former Governor of Kentucky. Counties in nine States and cities in five were named for Governor Shelby.

Elizabethtown was given the name of the wife of Col. John Hardin, for whom Hardin county was named.

Fulton bears the name of Robert Fulton, inventor of the steamboat. Glasgow was named from the city in Scotland.

Ludlow was so called in honor of Israel Ludlow, a prominent pioneer.

Princeton was named from William Prince, the first settler.

Versailles bears the name of the royal palace in Paris. Eight other towns in the country have this name.

Adair was named for Gen. John Adair, a former Governor. Counties in Iowa and Missouri were named for Gen. Adair.

Beira is a transference from the ancient city in Macedonia. Towns in Iowa and Ohio are similarly named.

Colombus is one of the numerous monuments to the discoverer of America.

Fiddleville was so named from the large eddies in the Cumberland river at that point.

Enniscorthy took its name from its situation on the highest point of land between Louisville and Lexington.

Greenville bears the name of Gen. Nathaniel Greene, of Revolutionary War fame.

Hawesville was named for Richard Hawes.

Hickman was so called in honor of Capt. Paschas Hickman.

Hodgenville owes its name to Robert Hodgen.

Kuttawa has the old Indian name of the Kentucky river.

Lancaster was named from and laid out after the plan of Lancaster, Pa.

Londoun is one of eleven towns in the country named directly or indirectly from the city in England.

Morehead was named for Governor James T. Morehead.

Owingsville was named for Col. T. D. Owings.

The Ohio river has an Iroquois name meaning "beautiful river."

Mississippi is another Indian word, signifying "great river," gathering in all the waters, or "an almost endless river spread out."

The Tennessee river has a Cherokee name, borne by several former settlements of that tribe, but which has lost its meaning.

Green and Big Sandy rivers have been given names descriptive of their physical features.

Barren river was probably so called through which it flows.

Rockcastle river was so called on account of the "rock castles" on the banks of the stream.

MAPLES

The beautiful old home of Capt. T. A. Elkin, situated two miles from Lancaster, on the Stanford and Lancaster turnpike, will be sold at public sale, Tuesday, June 9th, at 2 o'clock. This place contains 250 acres of productive land, 175 acres now in young grass and blue grass, 75 acres now in corn and tobacco. The farm is well improved, well fenced and well watered. A new 10-acre tobacco barn, with galvanized roof; stock barns and all necessary outbuildings. The two-story frame house is modern in convenience, contains eight rooms, metal roof, two halls, two porches, the front porch being of cement and 36 feet long, cement walks and beautiful driveway through a lawn of two acres, shaded with 100 trees, water maples, red bud maples and sugar trees. This is one of the most beautiful homes in Central Kentucky and only fifteen minutes' drive from the city with a $40,000 graded school.

On account of failing health and advancing age, the sale is absolute. Persons from a distance desiring to look at same, will be met at train at any time, day or night, and all such persons are especially invited.

Possession given any time and terms will be liberal to suit purchaser.

Luke McLuke Says

What has become of the old-fashioned woman who used to believe that she would have seven years of bad luck if she broke a looking glass.

Every man knows one fellow who hasn't any faults. And he doesn't have to go far to lay his hand on him.

If a man has a red nose, he has to wear it and let it go at that. But if a woman has a crimson cheek she can always wear a Beauty Veil.

The children were a whole lot more obedient in the old days when Father kept a paddle in the woodshed and Mother wasn't afraid to use her slipper.

Any married man with a family can tell you that the only time he ever gets any attention at home is when he is too sick to appreciate it.

The modest woman, who won't wear a silk skirt because it exposes one limb, will often wear a silhouette skirt and expose both of them.

Lots of men who are too wise to try to carry water in a sieve will argue with a woman.

The world will be growing better, but there are still too many booze-drinking legislators who talk temperance.

Lots of poor hooch who regard gambling as a crime will start in and try to get rich raising chickens.

When you want to tell where the telephone wire can always tell where a woman is at the other end of the wire.

A snake charmer is usually a female who looks as though she took to snakes--because her face would scare anything else.

Some day when we get things running right, there will be a law against carrying concealed hammers.

The Kansas State officials proudly announce that 80,000 quarts of joy juice were imported into Topeka and consumed last month. Who's afraid of prohibition?

Concrete for Crib Foundations

Almost every farmer suffers an actual money loss much larger than he realizes, through the ravages of rats and mice in his crib and granaries.

Concrete foundations for cribs stop this loss instantly. They are absolutely vermin-proof and practically everlasting.

Reliance Perfect Protection.

WOULD you buy FIRE INSURANCE if your house had to be burned to the ground as a total loss before you could collect any money?

Then why buy personal insurance of that kind?

You who only carry "life" insurance must die to win. If you become ill or disabled, your earning powers cease, yet you receive no aid from your insurance. On the contrary, you jeopardize your life insurance because your income stops when your expenses increase. Few men can stand this strain and still meet their premiums.

RELIANCE PERFECTION PROTECTION not only protects your heirs, but protects YOU and protects your insurance. You are paid for your loss of time, whether you are disabled one day or forever. You are paid no matter what your disease or what accident you may meet.

You who pay from $60 to $75 a year for accident and health insurance are simply paying for disability protection. After the term of your insurance your money paid in has no value. You must suffer if you would have any return from your investment. Your premiums have no earning value.

RELIANCE PERFECT PROTECTION POLICIES are fundamentally life policies. They carry all the excellent features of the regular life policy, the cash dividends, the paid-up value, the borrowing power, the money-earning and money-saving features that have made life insurance the ideal investment for the average man.

You who carry NO insurance are neglecting your duty--the safe-guarding of your loved ones. You are tempting fate by your indifference. You are GAMBLING against your life and your health, and you are sure to lose. Consider, then, RELIANCE PERFECT PROTECTION.

PERFECT PROTECTION means just what its words imply. It means insurance that covers you at all times with a mantle of security, that guards your interests, that PROTECTS you.

Reliance policies pay you for loss of time, a day, a year, pay for any illness, pay for any accident, and in case you die as a result of the accident, pay from two to five times the face of the policy.

Reliance policies are non-forfeitable, are self-protecting. Should you become permanently disabled they become fully paid up immediately, and your cash payments start at once. When you die, your heirs obtain the balance due you, either in cash or in payments as you may direct.

Should you die from disease, your heirs are paid the face of the policy. Other health and accident policies pay nothing for death through illness.

RELIANCE PERFECT PROTECTION costs you little more than an ordinary life insurance policy. Perfect protection allows you to PAY FOR YOUR LIFE INSURANCE WITH THE SAVING ON YOUR ACCIDENT AND HEALTH INSURANCE.

THE RELIANCE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY is the strongest institution of its kind in America. It has more actual money back of and protecting each dollar of insurance than has any other life insurance company in the world. Call, telephone or write for full particulars of RELIANCE PERFECT PROTECTION.

Joseph Hopper is at home from Danville with his mother, Mrs. Kitter Hopper. He will return to Danville next week for Commencement, being a graduate of C. U. this year.

L. C. Reynolds left Thursday for Maysville, to join his wife and little daughter, Bernice May, who are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith.

Mrs. L. E. Carpenter and son, Jack, of Philadelphia, Pa., who have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. McNeely, Sr., returned home this week.

Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Stallings, of Cincinnati, were the guests of Mrs. J. G. Carpenter several days this week before leaving for Oklahoma where they will make their future home.

Miss Bettie Paxton is in Lexington this week to see Tyler Watts graduate from State University. She will make a visit to Mrs. Bettie Huffman at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Bronaugha.

Supt. W. C. Wilson of the Stanford Graded and High Schools, went to Lexington Wednesday morning to attend State University Commencement, before leaving for his home in Webster county for the summer vacation.

Mr. A. H. Burdette has returned from a visit to his brother in Stanford and had an enjoyable fishing trip, on which he captured about fifty pounds of fine fish.—Birgin Cot to Harrodsburg Leader.

Rev. Hegel, a student of the theological seminary at Dayton, O., was here a few days this week with Rev. J. G. Boushaw on his way to East Bernstadt where he will have charge of a church at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones' Langham, of Morehead, are receiving the congratulations of many friends upon the arrival of another little son in their home. The youngster has been named J. K. Langham, Jr.

Mrs. H. A. Dorsey, of Carlisle, Ky., is quite sick with appendicitis at the home of her father, Rev. W. E. Arnold on East Main street. Mrs. Shelby Ottis and children have returned from Columbia where they visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. E. Hogan, Danville Messenger.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cold oil of Scott's Emulsion is a great blood-makher while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and uplift your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth McKinney, who has been attending school at Gambier, O., returned home Thursday night. An interesting society event in Danville Saturday evening will be the wedding of Mr. R. M. Fisher, of Stanford, and Miss Connie Penny, the beautiful and attractive daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Penny. Quite a number of friends of both the bride and groom will go over to Danville to attend the nuptial ceremony of this popular young couple.

Mrs. T. A. Rice most delightfully entertained a large number of boys and girls at her beautiful home on the Danville pike last Tuesday afternoon in honor of her nephew and niece, William and Frances Tate.

After a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hayden, in Paris, Mr. Eddie H. Hayden will leave for Toronto, Canada, where he has secured a lucrative position with the Powers Regulator Company.

He has been pursuing his studies in the mechanical and electrical departments at State University, in Lexington, and is a member of the 1914 graduating class.

Mr. Hayden will go in the shops or designing department of the Powers Company, and from there into the commercial or operating department. This company manufactures thermometers and other useful devices used in connection with high power machinery and heating plants.—Paris Kentucky Citizen.

Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma raise wheat need at least $2,000 more men to help in harvesting crops and the commissioners of labor of those states have asked Secretary of Labor Wilson to have his department co-operate with them in obtaining the necessary workers. The men will be wanted by June 14, and the pay, it is stated, will range from $2 to $3.50 a day.

The Lexington Herald said Wednesday of a well known Stanford horseman, J. W. Engleman, of Lexington and Louisville, well-known trainer of trotters who divides his home between the two Kentucky cities, arrived in Lexington last night from Louisville having come thither from Oklahoma, where he had been training a stable of trotters. Mr. Engleman has recently recovered from a spell of illness, but looks well despite the fact that he is a bit reduced in flesh. He brought up the good trotting mare Axalea, 2 1/4 years old, a 2-year-old bull by Golden Fern's Noble dam Campanile 35, which was sold to the Blackbelt Stock Farm, Hamburg, Ala., for $12,000.

A. Hawkins & Bros., of Anderson county, sold 422 cattle at $8 per hundred. They will average 1,250 pounds.

M. H. Vice, of Montgomery county sold last week to J. L. Robins, of Bourbon county, twenty-three lambs, averaging about 70 pounds.

R. C. Arnold bought 29 head of hogs averaging 134 pounds of J. E. Holman out on Route 1, at seven and a half cents.

E. E. Davis, a prominent young farmer out on the Shelby City pike, sold a cow and calf to R. C. Arnold for $42.50. Mr. Arnold also bought another one from J. T. Dunderer, out on Route 1, paying $45.1.

R. C. Arnold bought in the last week the following lambs: 26 of Alred Slope, of Rowland at $7 per hundred.

They averaged 70 pounds per head; 67 lambs of R. T. Bruce at seven cents per pound; 21 of Will Logan at $8 per hundred and 12 ewes at $4 per head and a cow of W. P. Logan, out on Lancaster pike for $87.50.

Shropshire has Some Good Ones

W. G. Shropshire, of Winchester, of the successful saddle horse firm of Matlack and Shropshire was in the city on his way to his old home at Liris. Mr. Shropshire completely dominated the five gaited championship classes the past season with Hazel Dawn, while he had a second string to his bow in Jack Barrymore, which held all the others safe.

Mr. Shropshire says he has a number of good horses of which Jack Barrymore, the stallion, Rexall Prince and the mare formerly known as Dogma the Cuckoo, are the best, while the three year-old colt, Ante Be King, owned by W. C. Massie of Paris, promises to be the star among his juveniles.

He has a pair of high class harness horses in the bay mare Lady Rosamond, formerly Unduhata Lady and a chestnut gelding by Golden Gay, a Highland Denmark horse out of the dam of Star McDonald.

At present his stable is a little light on three gaited horses but the season is still young and he has some green horses that appear to be pretty good prospects.

"I have more trouble in getting good three gaited patterns recently than anything," he said when speaking of the eastern saddle horse.—Lexington Herald.

Comforting To Stout People

Foley Cathartic Tablets are a specially good medicine regulation that keeps your system in perfect working order.

No bloatness, no constipation, distress after eating, no greasy, gassy taste.

A stout person who uses them constantly will really feel thinned out and more comfortable as a result of their use. For sale by all druggists.

At Bremen, Ga., W. M. Golden, of the Equitable Life Insurance Society, says he found Foley Kidney Pills to be the best remedy for kidney and bladder troubles, also for rheumatism. He says, "Any person having kidney trouble, backache, or rheumatism should be very glad to find such a wonderful remedy. For sale by all druggists."

Arthur Cottee, of near McKinney, bought five registered Dutch-Jersey gifts of C. E. Tate, Price private.

Will Huffman, a farmer of the Gilber's Creek section sold a 500-pound steer to R. C. Arnold for $32.50.

Sam Castello, out on Danville pike recently sold sixty 168 pound hogs to R. C. Arnold at seven and a half cents.

R. C. Arnold bought 29 head of hogs averaging 134 pounds of J. E. Holman out on Route 1, at seven and a half cents.

All person wishing to send mares to the court of Kentucky Gentleman, will please do so soon as possible as he will be put in training June 13th. His colts are showing up extra fine. A noted horseman said to us the other day that it looks to him like Kentucky Gentleman is going to be to Linenfield what Rex Peavine is to Madison.

Silas Anderson, out on Route 4, sold to T. W. Jones three 200-pound hogs at seven and a half cents per pound.

Am. Hunt, of this city, sold recently to T. W. Jones six shotts, averaging 100 pounds at seven cents per pound.

S. T. Powell, a well-known farmer of near Hustonville sold a cow and calf to Les Eads for $55.

Charley Foster, of Hustonville, sold to Noah Bishop, of near Moreland, six 175-pound hogs at eight cents per pound.

Edwards Bros., stock dealers, of near Moreland recently sold to George Bartlett, who lives on the Danville pike out of Hustonville, a cow and calf for $40.

On the farm of W. B. Webb, at Sargent, near Whitesburg, is perhaps the most interesting, long-lived and still bearing apple tree in Kentucky. The tree in question was planted over 90 years ago by Jason L. Webb, late father of the present owner, and for 85 years the apple tree has been continuously bearing. This year's crop is also a splendid one. The tree is of mammoth size still prolific and bids fair to survive many years longer. It is an object of extreme interest to all those who have looked upon the hardy tree.

A big business deal was consummated at Versailles, when Andrew Cim sold the Hope Mills and its large grain elevator to the Farmers' Union Mill and took a big block of stock in the last named company, with which he will be actively associated. The consolidation of these plants will give Versailles one of the largest flour mills in the State. The Hope Mills have been in operation for a number of years, and the Farmers' Union Mill, of which J. N. Camden is president, was established a little more than a year ago. They both have a large wholesale trade throughout Kentucky and a adjoining states.
